

Year Group 6: GEOGRAPHY – (Linked to WWI + WWII) – EUROPEAN COUNTRIES

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Memorable Image	Exciting Books continents	A continent is a large area of the land on Earth that is joined together. There are seven continents in the world.
physical characteristics	The study of the natural features of the Earth's surface, including land, climate, water currents and plants and animals.
human characteristics	These include land use, the amount of population, language, religion, architecture, and political systems in a given place.	Sticky Assessment Knowledge <input type="checkbox"/> I can recall and identify where the continents of the world are.	Useful Websites https://www.dkfindout.com/uk/history/world-war-i/ https://www.kids-world-travel-guide.com/europe-facts.html environmental characteristics	These include human and physical features. Natural features include soil, the atmosphere, plants and wildlife. Human features include housing, transport and industry.	<input type="checkbox"/> I know about the environmental, physical and human characteristics (including time zones) of ➤ England – London, Buckingham Palace, Thames, Pennines climate	This is the average measurements of temperature, wind, humidity, snow, and rain in a place over a long period of time.	<input type="checkbox"/> I know about the environmental, physical and human characteristics (including time zones) of ➤ Germany – Berlin, Black Forest, Rhine capital	A capital is a city where a country's government is. This is where government buildings are and where government leaders work.	<input type="checkbox"/> I know about the environmental, physical and human characteristics (including time zones) of ➤ France – Paris, Eiffel Tower, The Alps, Seine time zone	This is one of the areas into which the world is divided where the time is calculated as particular number of hours behind or ahead of GMT (Greenwich Mean Time).	<input type="checkbox"/> know about the environmental, physical and human characteristics (including time zones) of ➤ Russia – Moscow, The Kremlin/Red Square, The Caucasus mountain range, Volga river	Misconceptions and Facts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The United States actually did not become involved in WWI until 1917 – only one year before it ended – after Germany attacked its ships.