

Year 6: ART/DT – AUTUMN – ANCIENT GREECE

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Memorable Image	Exciting Books
architect	a person who designs buildings architecture	architecture of a building is the style in which it is designed and constructed
Doric	one of the styles of Greek-inspired column designs - plain
Ionic	another column design with scroll carved into the top	Sticky Assessment Knowledge	Useful Websites https://www.dkfindout.com/uk/history/ancient-greece/ http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/greece/gods.htm https://www.ducksters.com/history/ancient_greece/architecture.php
Corinthian	another column design with a bell shapes and leaves carved into the top	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I know how to use a range of artistic media:
needlework	is sewing or stitching that is done by hand	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I know how to experiment with textiles through needlework and fabric painting
textile	a cloth or fabric, especially one that has been woven	I know, understand, and can explain architectural elements. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I can explain the features of Doric, Ionic and Corinthian column decorations.
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I know who the architect - Robert Smirke was. I know that he used Greek features in his building designs e.g. The British Museum and The Royal Mint
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I know how to use architectural elements in junk sculpture. 	Misconceptions and Facts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Robert Smirke used Greek architecture as an inspiration for his designs. He designed the British Museum, The British Library and The Royal Mint.
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I know how to compare ideas to an original design brief.
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I know how to test and fully evaluate the product against clear criteria and then make refinements to the product. 	